

SPCCOL
929.376749
C 592c
1473-74

Winter 1973
Vol. 1, No. 1

THE CLARK COUNTY
HISTORICAL JOURNAL

This is the W. E. Barkman home at Arkadelphia, built by his father, J. E. M. Barkman, in 1860. The Barkmans were descendants of Jacob Barkman, who settled at Arkadelphia in 1811.

Published by
The Southern Standard Printing Co.
THE CLARK COUNTY HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
ARKADELPHIA, ARKANSAS

THE CLARK COUNTY
HISTORICAL JOURNAL

Vol. 1

Spring, 1973

No. 1

Table of Contents

Cover

Table of Contents

Pictures: 1. Jacob Barkman, called the Father of Clark County
2. Home of Jacob Barkman on Caddo River

The Clark County Historical Association
by Amy Jean Greene

Picture: CCHA Officers

Clark County: Early Times to 1842
by Editors of Journal with aid of Dr. John Hall

Pictures: Arkadelphia Street Scenes
+

Gurdon: Its Beginning
by Mrs. Wayne E. Taylor

Picture: Main Street, Gurdon, 1873

Alpine: By Maude Faulkner

Dr. Willis S. Smith
by Grace Benton Nelson

Picture: Dr. Willis S. Smith

Excerpts from the Scrapbook of Dr. Willis S. Smith
(1817-1891)

Members of the Clark County Historical Association
Officers of the Clark County Historical Association
(Back Cover)

+ Picture 1 Arkadelphia, 6th St. south of Main, 1870's
Picture 2 Arkadelphia, Main St., 1871
Picture 3 Arkadelphia, Rowland and McDaniel, 1876
Picture 4 Arkadelphia, Main St., 1910
Picture 5 J. W. Patterson Store, Arkadelphia, c. 1900
Picture 6 S. R. McNutt Store, Arkadelphia, c. 1910