

929.376749
C372c
1975-78

Winter 1975
Vol. II No. 1

The Clark County Historical Journal

Governor Harris Flanagin of Arkadelphia. Confederate governor of the Confederate state of Arkansas.

Published by
The Clark County Historical Association
Arkadelphia, Arkansas

Winter 1975
Table of Contents

Federal Invasion of Clark County by Grace Benton Nelson	1
Arkadelphia: A Confederate Arsenal Center by Grace Benton Nelson	10
Words of Appreciation of Margaret Ross by Grace Benton Nelson	17
An Intimate View of Clark County During the Civil War by Grace Benton Nelson	18
Arkadelphia's Contribution to the Civil War Effort by Janna Ferguson	23
Laura Scott Butler Won Prize for Early History of Clark County by Grace Benton Nelson	31
The Battle of the Bees by Grace Benton Nelson	33
Experiences of Clark County Boys in Camp and In the Field As Told By Themselves	36
Governor Harris Flanagin, Confederate Governor of Arkansas	40
The Flanagin Papers	45
Bird Flanagin, Body Servant to Governor Flanagin	66
Two Post-Civil War Stories of Clark County by Grace Benton Nelson	70
Old Arkadelphia, 1865 by Mrs. H.W. McMillan	71
Daughters of Confederate Soldier Are in Their Second Cen- tury	74
Confederate Soldier Writes His Wife (W.B. Moore's letter to his wife)	76
Memoirs of Arkadelphia Citizens by Zane Brewer Wilkinson	77
Legends of the Civil War	83
Clark County Volunteers in the Civil War by Allen Syler	85