Historical Summary

The Clark County Museum opened in 2003 in the Arkadelphia Passenger Station (Missouri-Pacific Depot). For 20 years, the museum operated under the aegis of the Clark County Historical Association. In 2023, the museum became a separate non-profit entity. The museum's mission is to be a "keeper of stories" for Clark County. The museum is located at 750 South 5th Street in Arkadelphia, Arkansas.
