

CLARK COUNTY HISTORICAL JOURNAL

2007

CLARK COUNTY HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

CONTENTS

Barns of Clark County Velma Conant Seale and Mary Lou White	1
Somebody Told Us Wall Street Fell: Class Relations in Clark County, Arkansas during the Great Depression Molly May	12
The History of the Atkins Family Mary Hart Shinn	16
Remembering Della Sue: A Tribute by an Affectionate Brother Eugene M. Simonson	19
Memories of Gum Springs Elementary School Melvyn Gillette	23
History of Greater Pleasant Hill Missionary Baptist Church Members of Greater Pleasant Hill Missionary Baptist Church	28
Woodmen of the World Monuments Laverne Todd	33
Arkadelphians in World War I Jacynda Ammons	37
Ouachita Men at War Ray Granada	42
Local Boy Makes Good? Joe Tom Meador, The Guedlinburg Hoard, and the Source of Virture Ray Granada	44
This is the Story of Kate Bruce Rose Thrash	51
All Roads Lead South, Part Four Velma Conant Seale	56
A Yankee's Journey into the Civil War Years in Clark County: Wives, Widows, and Veterans, 1863 and 1864 Shirley Graham	65
All Roads Lead South, Part Three: 4-H Velma Conant Seale	78
Pension Application of Peter Fenter of Clark County, Arkansas Wendy Richter	82
Diary Written by Jennie Lee Jacks, 15 Years Old, October 20-December 16, 1908 and June 3, 1909	85
Index	94