Welcome Back!

Do you remember last semester's last trivia question? "Who among your music faculty/staff used to work in a paper plate factory, was a drive-through bank teller, AND dressed up as Santa Claus for the bank?"

We had several guesses, but no one knew that it was really Dr. Rob Hewell! Can you see it now???

But just to say "Thanks for playing!" we drew a name from that incorrect guessers pile, and Aaron Breeding wins a box of cookies!

NEW TRIVIA QUESTION!

Who among OBU music faculty and staff grew up in Zimbabwe, went to OBU as an undergraduate, and has an uncle who played for the Razorbacks?

Send answers/guesses to phillipsc@obu.edu

Come on, play along! It could win you some cookies!

NEW STUDENT WORKERS

We have five new student workers helping to keep the music library open. Say hello to (in order of appearance) Carl, Dean, Cedar, Sharayah, & Cody!

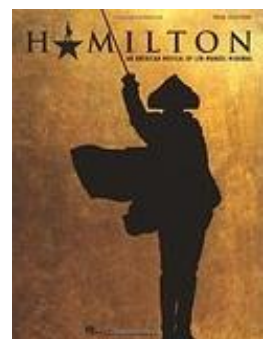

Please ask them for help! They will gladly search for books, scores, and recordings for you, and if we don't have something, please put a request in the suggestion box!

NEW ITEMS

We have a big bundle of books, scores, & CDs for Music Ed. The Feierabend folk music and solfège materials are in and ready to be used to teach and share music with young people. They will be on reserve under Dr. Morrison's name.

Among other new items in music library: Lin-Manuel Miranda's Hamilton: Vocal Selections. We can put your name on the wait list to check it out.

Send in your suggestions for purchase to phillipsc@obu.edu!

Don't forget Coffee & Cookies on Mondays. Why is that? Because Mondays!
