MERRY CHRISTMAS, EVERYONE!

And the trivia contest winner is....
Tori Bateman!
She knew that one of Dr. Gerber's hobbies was pen making. However, NOBODY knew the other thing, (what he certified to do in grad school that had nothing to do with music) so we'll just save that for another contest 😊

Are you wondering what the trivia contest winners receive for their knowledge and good luck? It's a small box of homemade cookies, of course!

Charlie Brown was a clear favorite!

Music Faculty & Staff

favorite Christmas music!

We took a poll and here are the results:

- Dr. Morrison – Christmas Portrait by The Carpenters
- Dr. Hewell – “What Sweeter Music,” set by John Rutter & the Wexford Carol
- Ms. Huney – “Do you hear what I hear?” & “O Holy Night”
- Mr. Stanley – Nat King Cole’s “The Christmas Song”
- Dr. Garrett – A Christmas Album & Home for Christmas albums by Amy Grant, also Handel’s Messiah.
- Ms. Phillips – A Charlie Brown Christmas
- Dr. Isenhour – Christmas Cookin’ by Jimmy Smith
- Dr. Thayer – Barenaked for the Holidays by BNL & “I am Dreaming of a White Christmas”
- Ms. Monroe – “O Holy Night” and “The Christmas Song (Chestnuts roasting...)”
- Dr. Lewis – A Charlie Brown Christmas
- Ms. La Madrid – “Christmastime is Here” from A Charlie Brown Christmas
- Dr. Gerber – A Charlie Brown Christmas
- Dr. G – “Grandma Got Run-over by a Reindeer”

What is one thing we have in our music library that NOBODY EVER USES? Vinyl! We have over 3,000 recordings on vinyl, all great performances, and they deserve a listen! Sure, you can find almost any music you want to hear on YouTube, but the quality is random and often poor. These old albums, on the other hand, their sound quality is fantastic. We have phonographs and headphones waiting for you to try! A perennial favorite in the music library: Ella sings Gershwin.

New TRIVIA QUESTION! This time, you have to guess which faculty/staff member fits the question:

Who used to listen to great punk rock bands (like The Ramones and Dead Kennedys) and once had orange & green hair?

Send answers/guesses to phillipsc@obu.edu

FOR FINALS WEEK

Coffee in the music library Monday-Thursday!
